Jacob traveled from Beersheba to Padanaram when he was going to Rebekah's brother Laban to find a wife. See how many words of three or more letters each you can make from the letters in the names Beersheba and Padanaram by mixing them together. You can only use letters in a word the number of times it appears in the two names. For example, you can use the letter a only 5 times, the letter r only 2 times, and the letter d only 1 time in a word.

What Do You Think?

In Genesis 27:36, Esau says that Jacob has taken advantage of him twice. He says the first time was when Jacob “took away” his birthright. Read Genesis 25:29-34. Do you think, from this passage, that Jacob “took” Esau’s birthright or not? What in this passage supports your thoughts on this?
