Pharoah Enslaves the Israelites

When Pharaoh is concerned about the Israelites rebelling against Egypt, he states in Exodus 1:10, "Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land." Why do you think Pharaoh believed he would gain more by enslaving the Israelites than by treating them well and making them feel loyal to Egypt?

God Calls

Read Exodus 3:4, Samuel 3:10, and Acts 9:4. What do you notice is the same in each of these verses where God is calling someone to serve Him? Do you think there is a reason God called each of these people this way? If so, what do you think the reason is? Do you think there was anything about the mission God had for each of these people that was part of why He called them this way?
